BOOTH SPACE

Exhibits are set up in the Independence Center and are available mostly in increments of 10 feet. The height of the ceiling varies in many places; so, we do not guarantee more than an 8-foot ceiling height in any location.

If you are ready to commit to exhibiting, to reserve a space, and receive an invoice, the first round of assignments will be made around June 1st. Preference will be given to Corporate Members. After June 1st, assignments will be made based on space available, in order of receipt of the Exhibition Intent Form. https://app.etapestry.com/onlineforms/NavalSubmarineLeague_1/exhibit_2022.html

PAYMENT METHODS

All payments should be made by the date specified on your invoice, or the later date price will be charged. All payments must be made prior to move-in.

CANCELLATION POLICY

We understand that situations change and that it might be necessary to cancel your participation. If this happens, we will need to receive written notice. Once invoiced, any company cancelling before September 30th will be required to pay 50% and any cancellations received after that date will result in full forfeiture of fees.

SECURITY

While we provide additional security for this event, to monitor access, crowd control, etc., we cannot be responsible for unsecured laptops or any unsecured items left unattended during open exhibit hours, set-up or breakdown of the event.

There is no guarantee that space will be available at the later dates.
We encourage early reservations.
